Title	① Why is the title "HeForShe" written in such a way with no space in between? ② Why do I often read such phrases in English articles, such as #HeForShe Campaign, #MeToo Movement, #Time'sUp, etc.	---Maybe because it is the name of a campaign with an effect of emphasis. ---#Hashtag is the common way to be used in Twitter, a very popular social media in western countries, which means a word or phrase preceded by # used to denote the topic of a post.(No space, no punctuation, and capitalization is optional) --- it is so bad that we have no access to Facebook, Tweeter, Instagram.	★★★★☆
Para 1	③I found there is a mistake in the pronunciation of ADVOCATE? Do you agree with me?	---Thank you for your reminding, so careful, so detail-oriented. 😊 ---I also find it sounds different, when I watched the video of the speech when Emma said this word. 🌸 Been there! ---Yeah, I've never realized this difference in pronunciation between its verb and noun, and now I know it. Love U!	★★☆☆☆
Para 1	③ Why do we invite men? They're the problem, not a solution.	---I totally agree with U. Men are the root of women's suffering. We should fight harder against them rather than asking them for help. ---I don't think so. Feminism doesn't only refer to uplifting women, which is a narrow/ traditional sense of feminists.	★★☆☆☆
Para 2	④ I think the second paragraph should be included into the second part rather than the first part. What's your opinion? (CONTRAVERSIAL)	---Agree. P2-6 show the problems the feminists encountered, including wrong understanding of feminism, worldwide prejudice. ---Disagree .I think the paragraph 2 should be classified as the first part, for the writer came up with the gender equality for which enquire every ones effort,(p 1)has the same meaning of the feminism (p2).while the	★★★★★

		p3-6 r about the writer's personal experience. --- Agree. Reason 1: The first paragraph is to put forward the topic of gender inequality and put it into practice. It is the main topic of the whole passage. In structure, the second paragraph is closer to the second part. Reason2: In content, just as the fourth paragraph mentioned, there's misunderstanding of feminism publically. It corresponds with the second paragraph. ---Disagree. The first paragraph is mainly about the writer's purpose: appealing others to get involved in the activity: ending the inequality between men and women The second paragraph is mainly about why the writer have this opinion --being appointed as the Goodwill Ambassador and have read many articles about feminism. The third to sixth paragraph are about more details of the experience de writer. So the first and the second paragraph are leading the article and should be divided into first part. NOTE: only 20 of 45 students think the PART I covers para 1-2 as listed on textbook, while the other half firmly believe the second paragraph should go with the second part. VERY CONTROVERSIAL
Para 5	⑥Why did the audience burst into applause when Emma said "I think it is right that I should be able to make decisions about my own body" from the video?	----Wow, I haven't watched the video of her speech. Missing this point by only reading the text. ---I don't know, maybe to show politeness or support when she delivered the repeated paralleled messages. ---it should be sth about the cultural context with "body", but I can't figure it out. No clue.	★★★★☆
